Coach Velvet Moore-Owen is a former semi-professional player who played in the European League for Italy. Upon her return to the States, she spent her career in Law Enforcement while spending time coaching college-bound and aspiring professional players. Today, Velvet coaches high school basketball, trains privately with elite athletes, and leads Milwaukee Bucks Camps each summer.

Mason Robinson comes to us from UW-Oshkosh as their Wide-Receiver Coach and Recruiting Coordinator. Coach Robinson also oversees the creative content and social media for the Titan Football Program. Before joining the UW-Oshkosh coaching staff, he coached at Austin Peay State University in Tennessee, Whittier College in California, and three years recruiting for USC that landed the #1 overall player in 2021.

Tom Rodriguez is a high school tennis coach and coaches at a number of tennis clubs across Southeast Wisconsin. Tom has had a great deal of success in coaching state-level high school athletes and future pros! Tom's passion for tennis is unparalleled and his athletes develop a love for the sport because of his guidance.

Ryan Kelly has been coaching baseball at the high school level for the past three years and has a great rapport with his athletes. He coaches with a strong head for the game of baseball and is well-respected in the conference for player development and leadership. He breaks the game down so that all may enjoy it and learn from it.

#28 GOALKEEPER for the Milwaukee Wave, Augie Rey played soccer for Yavapai College in Arizona before transferring to play for the UWM Panthers in 2015. Augie started every game for the Panthers and even made 6 saves in the season opener of his first year! Today, Augie continues to coach and helps the Milwaukee Wave make it to the playoffs each season.
